Dulles' Sister Reveals Reds Questioned Her in Vienna

CPYRGHT

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP).—The sister of Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said Sunday Soviet military authorities had detained and questioned her in Vienna several years ago.

Dr. Eleanor Lansing Dulles made the disclosure in a recorded television interview with Rep. Harold C. Ostertag, R., N. Y.

Rep. Ostertag underwent similar experience in East Berlin last November.

Dr. Dulles, an employee of the State Department, said her brush with the Reds occurred when she was representing the United States as financial attache in Vienna after World War II. Dr. Dulles, who did not disclose the date of her detention, has been with the department since 1942.

"I was picked up by the Soviet military and held for about the same time (four hours) that you were held and questioned," she told Rep. Ostertag. "I had gone out for a Sunday picnic, and they held me and asked me a great many questions, and then they decided, as they did in your case, that it wasn't wise to hold Americans."

The recorded program was televised in up-state New York.

Rep. Ostertag, accompanied by his wife, was arrested at pistol point in East Berlin Nov. 27 by East German police for alleged breach of that country's laws.

Dr. Dulles, who is married but retains her maiden name, is also the sister of Allen Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency.

Dr. Dulles is responsible for Berlin's affairs in the State Department's office of German affairs.
